

35th annual interiors awards

presented by contract

PHOTOGRAPHY: SAVERIO LOMBARDI VALLAURI

Ghelamco Arena

Sports

Massive Design

CLIENT
Ghelamco Group
LOCATION
Ghent, Belgium

JURY COMMENT
Pushing the idea of fabrication, the designers took the branding of the soccer team and introduced progressive architecture that engages the soccer fans. It looks like soccer heaven.

2014 Interiors Awards

Adaptive Reuse

Drexel University CoMAD URBN Center
MSR

Education

UMass Dartmouth Claire T. Carney Library
designLAB architects

Exhibition

Anne Exhibit at Museum of Tolerance
Yazdani Studio of Cannon Design

Healthcare: Large

Kaleida Health Gates Vascular Institute and UB Clinical Translational Research Center
Cannon Design

Healthcare: Small

Bloor West Dental Group
Southside Design

Hotel

Hotel Alfonso XIII
The Gallery HBA London

Office: Large

BBDO NY
HLW

Office: Small

Giant Pixel
Studio O+A

Public Space

Kanazawa Umimirai Library
Coelacanth K&H Architects

Restaurant

Andrea's at Encore
TAL Studio

Retail

Cannon Hall at the Graz Armory
INNOCAD

Sports

Ghelamco Arena
Massive Design

Sustainable

Federal Center South Building 1202
ZGF Architects

Student

Invisible Infrastructure
Annie Masincupp

PHOTOGRAPHY: JOHN CZARNECKI

The 2014 competition jurors (from left):
Joey Shimoda, Shimoda Design Group
Andreas Charalambous, FORMA Design
Anne Schopf, Mahlum Architects
LoriAnn Maas, Swanke Hayden Connell Architects
Siobhan Barry, ICRAVE

The five members of the Interiors Awards jury—leading designers from across the United States—selected winners from nearly 400 excellent entries. Demonstrating the power of place, each of the projects is located in a different city in the U.S., Canada, Spain, Austria, Belgium, and Japan.