"WITH SO MANY TALENTED PEOPLE IN ONE ROOM, FOR ONE NIGHT, IT'S THE BEST PARTY OF THE YEAR"

"WITHOUT THIS GREAT EVENT, WE WOULD NOT BE EXPOSED TO SUCH A HIGH LEVEL OF WORK, INTERNATIONALLY"

BoY grows up

Now in its 10th year, the Best of Year Awards took place, as the BoYs always do, right after the Hall of Fame. This time, the ceremony celebrated not just the top achievements in projects, products, and materials from the past 12 months but also the Best in 10, the very top since the awards began. Designers, family, and friends gathered at Gehry Partners's IAC headquarters in New York to hear the names announced by Interior Design editor in chief Cindy Allen. Winners walked away with the classic lightbulb-shape award by Harry Allen, no relation.

1. Architect Moriyuki Ochiai, winner for Counter Service, and photographer Art Gray.
2. The event's longtime venue, Gehry Partners's IAC building.
3. Winners and honorees posing with Interior Design editor in chief Cindy Allen.
4. Materials and Technology's Jason Gillette accepting the Innovative New Material for Wall Covering award on behalf of Rieke Office Interiors.
5. Sina Pearson of Sina Pearson Textiles, which won for Textiles: Contract.
6. Allen with Adam Sandow, chairman and CEO of Interior Design's parent company, Sandow.
7. Joyce Romanoff, president of Maya Romanoff.
8. Interior Design Hall of Fame member Lee Mindel, whose Shelton, Mindel & Associates was a winner for Large Corporate Office.
