Silence is golden...and stylish, too, courtesy of Architecture Research Office. Partners Stephen Cassell, Kim Yao, and Adam Yarinsky unveil the firm's namesake collection of acoustical solutions for FilzFelt. The fully customizable system includes ARO Block, featuring wool-felt panels of varying shapes designed to form repetitive patterns across entire walls or as an accent. Available in 63 colors—and infinite configurations. Through Knoll, space 1111

rabble rouser

OK, you've been warned: Konstantin Grcic wants to disrupt your workplace. Inspired by a tour of high-tech West Coast HQs, the prolific designer teamed with Vitra to develop Hack, a flexible system that upends the corporate-office paradigm. Raw panels of OSB frame the units, which can be fitted with work surfaces or converted into seating by adding upholstery. And Hack flat-packs for quick moving or storage. For the big reveal, turn to page 2! space 1192

supercool wool

With its newest collection, Synergy, conscientious textile house Camira one-ups itself. The fabric, made of premium New Zealand wool spiked with nylon (5 percent, to be exact), is a slightly softer, lighter, and brighter version of its popular Blazer wool. The series encompasses 75 solid hues and two coordinating prints: the tie-dye-effect Individuo and the aptly named Zig Zag, the latter conceived by graphic designers Howard Wakefield and Sarah Parris of British studio Parris Wakefield Additions. The high-performance fabric boasts a relaxed drape, sublime handle, and personality to spare. space 11-23A

HIP

There's still time to buy tickets to tonight's HIP Hoopay celebration! Purchase online by 1PM for $30 (hiphoopay.com) or at the door for $40. Party runs 5-7PM on the Mart's South Drive.

fleet footed

Patricia Urquiola's footprint at Haworth just got a lot bigger—and we mean that literally. The Interior Design Hall of Famer developed six rug collections with Spanish textile specialist Gan that are exclusive to the Haworth Collection roster of curated brands. Handmade in India, the cotton-backed wool patterns help define space in open-plan environments. space 312

The multitasking Dutch studio Schalten & Baijings teams with Moroso on an inspired collaboration, dubbed Ottoman. On view in the Skyline showroom, space 1060. Turn to page 3 for more...

Snappy scenes from a riveting first day of NeoCon!

Hundreds attended our annual HiP (honoring industry people and product) awards, held Sunday night in a raw industrial space in the Mart—just before the Giants party.

HiP winners from Expormim and The Trade Commission of Spain.

The Interior Design Live Studio, helmed by editor in chief Cindy Allen and managing editor Helene Oberman, broadcast real-time interviews with notables to 4 million Facebook followers. Tune in again Tuesday! And a special shoutout to presenter Carnegie and sponsors Knoll and Mannington.
